

● Arts & Culture

World AIDS Day benefit concert Nov. 18

ST. CATHARINES — An evening of cross-cultural music will support the Stephen Lewis Foundation.

UBUNTU Niagara, a group supporting the people of Africa overcome the effects of HIV/AIDS through the efforts of the Stephen Lewis Foundation, will hold its annual World AIDS Day Benefit Concert on Saturday, Nov. 18, at Silver Spire United Church in St. Catharines. The event, which is being called “Powered by Love”, will feature music by Mari Shantz and Friends, as well as Niagara’s own WomEnchant

Chorus and Drummers.

Tickets for the event, which begins at 7 p.m., are $20 a person or free for those 12 years of age and under.

Organizers of the event, which dates back to 2006, are also seeking sponsorship for the event, to help them raise as much as possible in support of the Stephen Lewis Foundation.

For more information, tickets, sponsorships, or to lend support with the organizing, call Gloria at 905-935-1168 or Silver Spire Church at 905-682-8328.